

demand upon our bankrupt victim," remarks the Chicago Times-Herald. "Otherwise the savages may say of us as Ingomar once said of his foes: 'If these be Christians, I thank the gods that I am a barbarian.'"

District Court.

The criminal cases on trial during the week have attracted a large number of spectators, and at times the court room has been crowded with people interested in these cases.

In the case of the Territory against Aurelio Montoya, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, the jury found him guilty and Judge Sloan sentenced him to two years at Yuma.

Juan Montoya was found guilty of forgery and was given three years in Yuma.

Matt C. Foley was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail for assault.

Frank Delaney, who killed Ed. Madden at Angell, was tried Monday. The jury found him guilty of murder and fixed his sentence at life imprisonment in the Yuma prison.

The case of the Territory vs. John Drain created more than ordinary interest. Drain shot and killed a colored woman named Jennie Wilson, in Williams on July 31. There was apparently no motive for the deed and the defense set up the plea of temporary insanity. E. E. Ellinwood conducted the case for the defense so successfully that the jury brought in a verdict of insanity at the time of committing the deed.

Big Hat Charlie's Son, a Navajo Indian, indicted by the grand jury for attempt to commit a rape upon the person of Margaret O. Sheward, near Tuba City, plead guilty to the charge and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

The following divorces were granted: Hallie Jackson vs. J. W. Jackson; Jesse Baker vs. Lewis Baker; Joseph Dent vs. Emma C. Dent; Sarah E. Ashurst vs. Wm. H. Ashurst.

The case of John Smoot, charged with the killing of Juan Encinas in Williams on June last, went to the jury last night.

The trial jurors not in the Smoot case were discharged Thursday afternoon and the business of the court will be finished today.

Upon motion of E. M. Doe that portion of the grand jury report reflecting upon Mr. C. H. Schulz was by the court ordered stricken from the records upon the grounds that it was scandalous and impertinent.

Change of Text Books.

The Territorial Board of Education has made a change of text books for the schools of Arizona as follows: In arithmetic, grammar, geography, readers and physiology, and have adopted the California system of vertical writing.

Parties desiring information in regard to prices of new books, and amount allowed for old books in exchange will apply to the trustees of their districts or the county superintendent. 29-41

Rube Adams, a noted Grand Canyon guide from Williams, was in the city this week as a juror.
